[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
FREDERICKSBURG, VA., April 26.—Miss Mary Custis Lee, daughter of General Robert E. Lee, who was the central figure at the Confederate ball held here on Monday night, is now a guest at "Highland Home," in Stafford County, the residence of Captain Dan M. Lee, brother of the late General Fitzhugh Lee, and will remain until the end of the week. She is enjoying her stay.

ODD FELLOWS ADJOURN
District Convention Celebrating Anniversary of Order Comes to Close at Weldon, N. C.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
WELDON, N. C., April 26.—In celebration of the seventy-ninth anniversary of the Order of Odd Fellows in America, and the seventy-fifth birthday of Weldon Lodge, No. 1, the Eighth District convention met here to-day. Among distinguished members of the order in attendance from a distance were: Grand Master Thomas L. Green, Grand Secretary B. H. Woodell and Past Grand Master M. L. Shipman.

Miss George Llewellyn Christian, of West Grace Street, entertained at a luncheon reception yesterday afternoon in honor of her daughter-in-law, Miss Stuart Gratian Christian, of Baltimore. Miss Lightfoot Sims, of Baltimore, more than 250 guests were invited. The use was decorated in fragrant pink roses. Palms and trailing vines formed an effective background for the pink roses were used on the mantels and in the hall. The tea table in the dining-room was arranged with a bas-relief of pink roses and the lights were added in rose color.

Miss Christian received in a gown of child-colored silk with a corsage bouquet of purple orchids. The guest of honor wore her wedding gown of soft white satin and tulle, and carried a bouquet of pink sweetpeas and lilies of the valley. Miss Carter, Ingram and Miss Janet Sims presided at the punch bowl. Others assisting in doing the honors were Misses Elizabeth and Nellie Christian, Misses Marie Sampson, Helen and Miss Tongue, of Baltimore; Mrs. Charles G. Gordon, of Baltimore; Mrs. Ryland, Mrs. Daniel Wilcox, of Petersburg; Mrs. James Young, of Baltimore.

Another interesting affair of yesterday was the bridge party given by Mrs. L. McClellan, of Monroe Terrace, in honor of her sister, Mrs. Lillian Dodson Brown, of Baltimore, who is her guest. There were five tables playing whist and a buffet table. The refreshments were served after the game was concluded.

O'Ferrall Weds in Birmingham.
Fashionable society here and throughout the State is deeply interested in the marriage of Miss Virginia Underwood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William T. Underwood, and niece of Major Oscar W. Underwood, and Miss Carter O'Ferrall, son of the late Governor of Virginia, Charles T. O'Ferrall and Mrs. O'Ferrall. The ceremony took place yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the home of the bride's parents in Ridge Park, Birmingham, Ala. Rev. Thomas J. Beard, who officiated the bride, officiating. The bridesmaids were arranged with bouquets of pink lilies and pink orchids, roses, and the houses were lighted by pink and white candles in ornate old silver candlesticks. Pink and white flowers were banked on the aisle and the same blossoms were used to decorate the dining-room and hall. A stringed orchestra played the wedding music.

The bride descended the stairway with her father, who gave her in marriage, and they were met at the altar, ranged in the room and his brother, John Danforth, who acted as best man. Her wedding dress was an exquisite affair, fashioned of white tulle with a dounce of thread lace and long tulle of Georgia. The train was of white lace and tulle, and the skirt was of white tulle, and the skirt was made round, the veil of illusion falling just behind the bride's gown. Her hair was fastened with a simple wreath of orange blossoms, and she wore no jewels.

Miss John Lewis Underwood, daughter-in-law of Senator Underwood, was the bride. She wore a pink marquisette dress, draped over pink tulle, with a leghorn hat trimmed in moss. She carried a Colonial bouquet of pink roses. A wedding breakfast followed the ceremony, after which the bride and groom left for a honeymoon trip to Old Point Comfort, and will later be the guests of relatives in Richmond. Some of the guests from distance attending the ceremony were: Mr. John Taylor Thompson, of Farmville, sister of the groom; Frank O'Ferrall, of this city, and others.

The wedding was one of the most important events of the spring season, owing to the social prominence of both bride and groom, and a distinguished company of guests witnessed the ceremony. Mr. O'Ferrall belongs to the family of the oldest and best-known families in the State, and his bride is equally as prominently related.

Smart society will be out in force to attend the "Vanity Fair," given tomorrow afternoon and evening in the ballroom of the Jefferson Hotel under the auspices of the Girls' Auxiliary to the Belle Bryan Day Nursery. Some of the leading women of the city have the affair in charge, and all sorts of novel features have been planned. The costume dance in the evening will be opened with a German figure, led by Colonel Thomas B. McAdams, and attractive favors will be distributed among the dancers. Mrs. Hiram M. Smith has charge of the reservation of tables, and some of those who have recently taken tables for the event are: Mrs. J. H. Hickok, Mrs. Granville Gray, Mrs. John Kerr Branch, Mrs. Robert G. Cabell and Mrs. William L. Royall.

Blues' Dance.
The Richmond Light Infantry Blues' Battalion have issued invitations for a full-dress parade and ball, to take place at the armory, corner Fifth and Marshall Streets, to-morrow evening at 8:30 o'clock. Several hundred guests have been invited, and the entertainment will be a brilliant one.

A beautiful home wedding was solemnized yesterday morning, when Miss Mary Belle Meacham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. T. Meacham, of Petersburg, became the bride of Robert Burton Hall, Jr.

ITCHING RINGWORM ALL OVER FACE
Kept Spreading. So Bad Could Not Sleep at Night. Itched and Burned. Ashamed to Go Anywhere.

HEALED BY CUTICURA SOAP AND OINTMENT
"Ringworm first began on my face and spread to my neck and it got almost all over my face. It first came out in one little bump and kept spreading, and it got so bad I could not sleep at night. The ringworms were large and as thick as they could be and the skin was red and inflamed. They itched and burned and the itching was so bad that I scratched my face by scratching. I was ashamed to go anywhere."
